

1360

1912 Dates. J-BK

England & Scotland

Peace of BRETAGNY.

1360

Treaty of Brétigny: height of English power in France

1360

There were only about 20 mechanical clocks in Europe, most of them in churches & monasteries.

Clocks were not used in public buildings until about 1450.

1360

After Black Death
Population of Europe: 50π

1360

(1350-1364) JOHN II, The Good

King of France (1350-1364).

Defeated at POITIERS. Captured and taken to London. ~~Rele~~ Released under Treaty of BRETAGNY (1360). When his son, the duke of BURGUNDY, broke his parole, and left England, John voluntarily surrendered. Died in London 1364

1360

Europe's population fell to
c. 50m as result of plague

1360

France

King John regains his liberty; cedes much territory
to England

1360 & after

1912 Dates J-BK

JANISSARIES (Cp)

The Janissarian Corps was more perfectly organized by AMURAT I; its strength raised to 12,000. The drafting of Christian children and captives ceased after the 16th century and the Corp was recruited by voluntary enlistment and numbered from 25,000 to 100,000.

May 8, 1360

Treaty of Breteigny

Short time during 100 yrs War
France gave England £ 3 million gold crowns as ransom for King John II (1319 - Apr 8, 1364)
and ceded much territory
to England.

C1360

1912 Dates J-BK

(1300-1369) BERTHOLD SCHWARTZ

A German monk.

Is said to have discovered gunpowder

C1360

1912 Dates J-BK

1313- 1375

GIOVANNI BOCCACCIO
of Italy

'Decamerone'

1360 AD

Europe Population = 50,000,000
Black Plague killed many since 1300.